

VillaPS Privacy and Data Protection Policy

Last updated date: June 13, 2026

1. Commitment to Transparency and Collected Data

We at VillaPS are committed to the highest standards of transparency. We collect data for the sole purpose of improving the booking experience, verifying reliability, and securing transactions. Data includes:

- Identification Data: (Name, phone number, email, and ID photo if necessary).
- Usage Data: (IP address, device type, browser, and history of interaction with the site).
- Location Data: To locate properties and facilitate access.
- Financial Data: (Payment records and deposit details).

2. Our Commitment Regarding "No Sale"

We assure users that your data is not a commodity. We do not sell, rent, or share your personal data with third parties for marketing or commercial purposes. Data is used exclusively within the VillaPS technical environment and only with the concerned property owners to complete the booking process.

3. Disclaimer Clause Regarding Unmentioned Data

While we make every effort to state all types of data we collect, we may sometimes collect secondary technical data necessary for the operation of the platform or to improve server performance (such as functional cookies or performance analytics). The user agrees that the non-mention of any sub- or non-essential technical element in this policy does not imply a waiver of the platform's right to collect it, and VillaPS is exempted from any legal liability for collecting non-essential technical data aimed at improving site security and user experience.

4. Security Protection and Intellectual Property

Content Protection: Reusing or copying any content (images, texts, design) on the site is prohibited. Any attempt at "data scraping" or impersonating our visual identity will be met with strict legal action.

Impersonation: Any attempt to use another user's data or assume a false identity will lead to banning the user and reporting to the competent authorities if required.

5. User Responsibility for Their Data

The user bears responsibility for the confidentiality of their login data (password). In the event of any account breach due to the user's negligence, VillaPS bears no responsibility for any harm that may occur to their personal data.

6. Periodic Updates

VillaPS reserves the right to update this Privacy Policy in accordance with technical developments. Your continued use of the platform after any modification constitutes final approval of the updated policy.
